The marriage of Miss Grace Eastment, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Eastment, who was assisted by the Rev. J. M. Brydie Sterrett, and the bride was given in marriage by her father.

Green and white was the color scheme carried out in the church decorations, roses, iris and carnations being intermingled with palms, ferns and other greens. Tall standards were used in the chancel.

The bride, who was attended by her sister, Miss Elsie Eastment, wore a gown of white satin crepe made on old-fashioned lines, with a bouffant skirt and a tight basque. White satin ribbons were used to trim the neck of the gown and the edge of the choker sleeves.

The long tulle veil fell several yards on the floor, forming the train, and was arranged around the face with the coronet of rose point lace. Clusters of real orange blossoms were used on the veil and on the end of the train. The bride carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and white orchids.

Miss Eastment, the maid of honor, wore a dainty afternoon frock of peach bloom organdie, made over a slip of pale blue crepe de chine. She wore a large lagoon hat faced with pink, and trimmed with one big pink rose, and her bouquet was of pink and blue snapdragons.

The bridegroom was dressed in the uniform of his country's army, and Baron G. W. de Vos van Steenwijk, the best man, wore the uniform of the American army, wearing the uniform of their country, gave the wedding a military character.

Los Angeles.—The secret of beauty is the proper care of the skin," says Miss Nilsson, the popular star. "It only requires a few moments time and any one is more than paid for the little effort it takes. In the first place the skin should be kept scrupulously clean. Use a good cleansing cream (Liska cold cream is splendid for this purpose). Follow this by bathing the face with warm water then rinse with cold water and dry thoroughly with a coarse towel. After this apply derwillo. It instantly beautifies the complexion and its continued use makes the results permanent.

Derwillo takes the place of face powder, as it stays on better and is wonderful for a shiny nose, oily, dark, sallow skin, tan, wrinkles and other facial blemishes. Just make this test: Put derwillo on one side of your face, then look in your mirror and compare it with the other side, you will need no further argument to convince you that nothing beautifies like derwillo.

It imparts a youthful appearance and if you would keep your complexion at its best all the time, make derwillo a part of your toilet as you now do face powder and

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Danforth, of Providence, while visiting in Washington, are staying at the Shoreham.

The Commercial Counselor of the British Embassy and Miss John Joyce Broderick will entertain a company of twelve at dinner this evening, in compliment to Mrs. Archibald Barklie, of Philadelphia, who is the guest of the Misses Patten.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Bennett entertained a company of ten at luncheon at the Shoreham yesterday.

Maj. Gen. James G. Harbord, deputy chief of staff, U. S. A., and Mrs. Harbord will sail tomorrow from New York on board an army transport for a two months' leave of absence in Europe. This is General Harbord's first visit to the other side since the war and he is looking forward keenly to renewal of old friendships. In the party sailing with General and Mrs. Harbord is Capt. Gustav Villaret, a member of his personal staff.

They expect to remain abroad until July, returning with the last batch of American troops stationed on the Rhine.

G. Cornell Tyler, of the diplomatic service, was host at luncheon yesterday at the Shoreham, entertaining in compliment to Mrs. Steinwender, guest of Mrs. Edwin Fuller.

Mrs. Louis N. Geldert, national president of the League of American Pen Women, and Miss Cornelia Right, president of the Women's National Press Club, will be entertained at luncheon tomorrow by Mrs. J. Irving Steele, one of the newly elected vice presidents of the Pen Women's League. The party will be given at the Woman's National Foundation.

The College Women's Club will hold its annual business meeting on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. This meeting is an important one, as, in addition to the election of officers, action will be taken on the matter of buying the clubhouse, and matters concerning vital changes in the policy of the club will come up for action.

The polls will be open for voting at the clubhouse from 2 o'clock until 9 o'clock. There is an unusual amount of interest in the election of officers, and there is much friendly rivalry among the candidates and their supporters. The candidates are very representative of the various collegiate interests of the club, as, with the exception of George Washington University, of which both Miss Verhoff and Miss Safford are graduates, no two candidates are graduates of the same college, and no two are members of the same sorority.

Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, who was in New York for a few days, has returned to Washington and joined her daughter, Miss Grace Vanderbilt, and her son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., at their apartment at Wardman Park Hotel.

Beauty Secrets Revealed

Anna Q. Nilsson, the Popular Actress, Tells How To Instantly Have a Beautiful Rosy-White Skin and Complexion.

Los Angeles.—"The secret of beauty is the proper care of the skin," says Miss Nilsson, the popular star. "It only requires a few moments time and any one is more than paid for the little effort it takes. In the first place the skin should be kept scrupulously clean. It imparts a youthful appearance and if you would keep your complexion at its best all the time, make derwillo a part of your toilet as you now do face powder and note the favorable comments of your friends.

There is nothing like derwillo to beautify your hands and arms and to protect them from roughness and rudeness, which always follows exposure to sun, dust and wind. It is guaranteed absolutely harmless on the most delicate skin and will positively not stimulate or produce a growth of hair.

Give it a thorough trial and you will never be without it. Accept no substitutes as there is nothing "better," "just as good," or "just like it." Derwillo comes in three shades, flesh, white and pink.

Write—Ask your druggist about derwillo and he will tell you that he has never sold any toilet article which has become so popular in so short a time. This is due to the satisfaction it gives. It is guaranteed by every druggist or department store to give complete satisfaction or they will refund your money. If you don't like it take it back. Could anything be fairer?

You can secure derwillo at the Peoples Drug Store and at all leading drug and department stores.
